KICKSTARTER CROWDFUNDING

Funds: Variable

Closes: Open year-round

Purpose: Kickstarter is a crowdfunding platform for artists, musicians, filmmakers, designers, and other creators to find the resources and support they need to make their ideas a reality.

How it works: Each project is independently created and crafted by the person behind it. When they're ready, creators launch their project and share it with their community. Every project creator sets their project's funding goal and deadline. If people like the project, they can pledge money to make it happen. If the project succeeds in reaching its funding goal, all backers' credit cards are charged when time expires. If the project falls short, no one is charged. Funding on Kickstarter is all-or-nothing.

Eligible applicants: Must be 18 years of age or older; a permanent resident in Australia either creating a project in their own name or on behalf of a legal entity with an Australian Business Number; possess an Australian address, Australian bank account, and government-issued ID (driver's license or passport); have a major Australian credit or debit card.

Eligible projects: Creative projects in the worlds of Art, Comics, Dance, Design, Fashion, Film, Food, Games, Music, Photography, Publishing, Technology, and Theatre. Must also be a project with a clear goal, like making an album, a book, or a work of art. A project will eventually be completed, and something will be produced by it.

Ineligible projects: Kickstarter does not allow: charity, cause, or "fund my life" projects.
