Awards: Individuals

There are two categories for Individual Awards:

- #1: Paid Staff
- #2: Volunteer Staff

Use a separate form for each nomination.

An individual cannot self-nominate – they must be nominated by another person.

Nominations are invited for a paid staff member or a volunteer. In order to develop the best possible nomination and to obtain accurate facts, it is recommended that you discuss the information with the person you are nominating.

Nominations must address the selection criteria. If they do not, they will be deemed ineligible for judging.

The GAMAA will be judged by a panel of industry peers. A shortlist of Finalists in each category will be announced in September 2021.

There is a separate nomination form for GAMAA Organisation Awards.

Refer to the Museums & Galleries Queensland website, www.magsq.com.au

NOMINATION FEES

*Australian Museums and Galleries Association (AMaGA) members — Free

*Public Galleries Queensland (PGQ) members — Free

A non-refundable fee of $30 per nomination applies to all other nominations (contact M&G QLD to arrange).

*For free entry, either the person being nominated, or the person submitting the nomination (or their organisations), must be an AMaGA or PGQ member. If you need to check your membership status, email membership@magsq.com.au or phone the freecall number 1800 866 101.

SUPPORT MATERIAL

Nominations should be accompanied by up to four items of support material. Material should be succinct and clearly related to the person nominated. It should enhance your written nomination by giving additional information or backing up the claims you have made. You are encouraged to submit up to the maximum number of items – providing good-quality support material will help to strengthen your nomination.

Here are some examples to get the best out of your support material:

- Each media clipping counts as 1 piece of support material, so don't send two or three that say the same thing. Choose the best.
- A maximum of 10 photos counts as 1 piece of support material (if emailing, please send each photo as a separate file).
- Judges will not have time to read every word of large publications (including catalogues, education kits etc), so identify particular sections you want them to see.
- Don't supply a 3-hour film – choose one or two excerpts of no more than 5–10 minutes' duration.
- You can choose to send a written referee's report as one of the items. Make sure it adds to what your nomination says, not simply repeats the same information.

Where possible, support material should be provided electronically (e.g. scans of media clippings, jpg files of photographs) by either email; posted on a USB drive; or sent via Dropbox (or similar). Nominations will not be disadvantaged where this is not possible. Catalogues, publications etc. can be mailed in hard copy.

Generally, the judges will only use referees where they need to verify the accuracy of information on the nomination form, or where the judging scores are close and additional information will assist with the decision-making.
