LIFE SENTENCE

BRISBANE, March 2.—Arthur Ernest Halliday, 42, plumber, showed no emotion when sentenced in the Criminal Court tonight to imprisonment with hard labour for life.

The jury took only 60 minutes to reach a verdict of guilty on a charge against Halliday of having wilfully murdered Athol McCowan, 26, taxi driver, at Currumbin, Southport, last May.

Mr Justice Stanley said he had never commented on a jury's verdict since taking his place on the bench, but he agreed with the jury's verdict in this case.

In Memoriam.

A Tribute to the Memory of our dear friend, Trooper George H. Oats, 8th Light Horse, 14th Battalion, killed in action at Gallipoli on 30th June, 1915.

But how could George die better,
And nobler play the game,
Than for the honor of Australia,
And the glory of her name.

What Trove does...

Trove is a great democratiser of information that might once have been consigned solely to the reading and microfiche rooms of state and national institutions, inaccessible to many people in remote and regional Australia or, indeed, in other parts of the world.
