FLYING ARTS
ALLIANCE INC

The Regional Arts Fund (RAF) is an Australian Government program designed to benefit regional and remote arts practitioners, arts workers, audiences and communities. The fund is provided through Regional Arts Australia and is administered in Queensland by Flying Arts Alliance.

FLYING ARTS ALLIANCE INC

Objectives of the RAF

RAF supports and promotes participation in, and access to, Australia's arts and culture in regional and remote Australia by:

- encouraging and supporting sustainable economic, social and cultural development in regional communities
- developing partnerships and networks which leverage financial and/or in-kind support for specific projects and encourage ongoing collaboration
- developing audiences and broadening community engagement with the arts
- increasing employment and professional development opportunities for, and raising the profile of, regional and remote artists

Streams of Funding

- Community Project Grants (CPGs)
- Quick Response Grants (QRGs)
- Special Funding (e.g.Travel Grants for Artlands)

FLYING ARTS ALLIANCE INC

Community Project Grants

- Major funding of up to $30,000 per application
- Cannot request 100% of project costs

FLYING ARTS ALLIANCE INC

Community Project Grants

- Fixed opening period – usually 8 weeks

Community Project Grants

Cairns based musical and cultural ensemble Women of AustraNesia received a CPG to produce Woven, a musical production that seeks to capture the essence of what is most powerful and enduring about the nature of woman.

“This was a wonderful production with honest and moving performances, song and storyline. The production spoke of the many truths for communities of the South Pacific which shape their lives.” – Stephen Ung, FNQ Regional Director, Department of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships

Toowoomba group StoryARC received a Community Project Grant to facilitate a lantern-making and performance component of a larger community festival.

“Fabulous creative initiative that involved locals. My daughter loved making her lantern and then being involved in the flash mob.”
Feedback from participant

Quick Response Grants

Fraser Coast Creative Space received funding to cover artist and curator fees to provide extension activities for the first artist in residence program.

As part of the exhibition, artist Akos Juhasz and curator Susie Lewis delivered art enrichment programming and two action performance artworks.

Participant feedback:
‘Looking forward to this kind of dialogue being a regular feature for artists!’

‘Thankyou for putting this on. We need more of this’

FLYING ARTS ALLIANCE INC

What the RAF will fund:

- Wages for artists and arts workers
- Materials for workshops
- Travel and workshop fees for professional development opportunities

FLYING ARTS ALLIANCE INC

What the RAF will not fund:

- Core costs of organising and running competitions, prizes, awards or fund-raising activities
- Curriculum/school-based activities (including school musicals and excursions) or tertiary course fees
- Infrastructure
- Non-arts related aspects of a project

– HOW MIGHT APPLICANTS ADDRESS THE RAF ASSESSMENT CRITERIA?

The RAF supports projects that support the funds objectives of:

- encouraging and supporting sustainable economic, social and cultural development in regional communities
- developing partnerships and networks which leverage financial and/or in-kind support for specific projects and encourage ongoing collaboration
- developing audiences and broadening community engagement with the arts
- increasing employment and professional development opportunities for, and raising the profile of, regional and remote artists.

The considerations listed below are customised to the purpose, objectives and criteria of the RAF.

Criteria	Possible Considerations
QUALITY Proven capacity to support and/or deliver high quality arts and cultural initiatives in regional communities in response to identified need or demand	• Who will deliver the project? Provide evidence of the quality of their work (CV, outcomes from previous projects, letters of support). • Does the project or activity involve a high standard of artistic or professional expertise in the arts and cultural sector? • Does the project respond to a demand or need? In what ways? How does the project provide high quality experiences for audiences, participants, local community?
